

Hamsey Parish Council would like to express its sadness at the passing of our monarch Queen Elizabeth II. She was a wonderful Queen who was totally committed to serving the Country, the Commonwealth and its people. Our Queen will be sorely missed. May she rest in peace.

A book of condolence is placed at St Peters Church, Offham for those to record their thoughts and space for quiet reflection, has been set aside at the church. Flowers can be laid at Beechwood Park or at the Church.
